

Ballard P. Caldwell

Obituaries

Posted by: Webmaster

Posted on : 2007/10/19 6:03:13

Rites Sunday For Ballard Caldwell

Ballard P. Caldwell, 73, retired oil field pumper, died at his home Thursday following a short illness.

Funeral services were held from the Banner church Sunday morning at 10:30 with Rev. Hankins officiating and internment was made in the Clover cemetery by the Hardman-Conrad Funeral Home.

Mr. Caldwell was twice married and is survived by his second wife Sarah Matheny Caldwell; three sons and two daughters by his second marriage, Charles Caldwell, U. S. Army, James Caldwell, Pt. Pleasant, Robert Caldwell, Clover, Ocie and Bessie Caldwell at home; two sons and three daughters by his first marriage, Frank and John Caldwell, of Akron, Mrs. Amos Heffelfinger, Mrs. J. C. Hickel and Mrs. Howard Stutler, all of Clover.

(Ballard Caldwell passed away March 5, 1942) (Submitted by Evelyn Bissell Starcher)