The Roane County Historical Society, in conjunction with his widow Kay Craig, has for sale a limited quantity of the final book of W. Frederick Craig, who died in 2008.

Once Upon a Tuesday is an attempt to present a history of Reedy and the surrounding area. Much of the information previously appeared in the columns of The Pointer (1904-1909) or The Reedy News (1909-1949) published by Fred's father, Fred E. Craig (1879-1973).

This is a large book, over 500 pages. We have a few copies within a 3-ring notebook, and the balance have a soft cover.

The price is $50.00, plus $3.00 tax for WV residents. Out-of-state residents may order the book from the Roane County Historical Society, P.O. Box 161, Spencer, WV 25276, for the price of $50.00, plus $3.00 postage fee. Either way, the ultimate price is $53.00.

At this time, the quantity of books to be printed will be 50 copies, and we only have 19 copies now, but should have the balance soon.
