On 22 Aug 1833, Samuel Tanner gave a very detailed account of his military service to Thomas Boggs, Justice of the Peace, Jackson County, VA for the purpose of obtaining his Revolutionary War pension.

State of Virginia
County of Jackson

On the 22d day of June AD 1833 personally appeared before me the subscriber a Justice of the Peace in and for the County of said and State of Virginia Samuel Tanner a resident of Spring Creek in the county of Jackson and State of Virginia aged 74 years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7t 1832. That he entered service of the United States under the following named officers and served as here in stated. In April in the year 1777, in the County of Rockbridge in the State of Virginia he volunteered as a private in a company of militia commanded by the Capt.

_____ Hall, marched to Lexington in the said county, where the said company assembled and was organized and about the 10th of May commenced a march toward Point Pleasant at the mouth of the Great Kananwha river. Marched via Warm Springs and Hot Springs in the Bath County. Crossed Jackson river 5 miles from the Hot Springs. Proceeded to the fort where Lewisburg now is there joined a companies of regular and militia under command of Col George Skillern, remained here two or three weeks for the purpose of obtaining a supply of cattle and other provisions. Then proceeded on the march by Walker's meadows on the head of the Meadow River, crossing the Sewell Mountains, fell on to Gauley River near it's mouth crossing the same fell on to the Great Kanawha a short distance below the falls thereof lay here a week or two in consequence of some sickness among the officers. Then proceeded on the march to Point Pleasant where they arrived some time in the month of August. Found the fort garrisoned with a few regulars under command of Capt Matthew Arbuckle. Halted at Point Pleasant in expectation of being joined by Genl. Hand from Fort Pitt and then the which to proceded against the Indian villages on the North west side of the Ohio. In October some of the company to which declarant belonged was on the west side of the Kana river hunting. One of whom was killed by some Indians who were lurking about at which the soldiary became greatly enraged and proceeded to the guard house and killed Cornstalk and som other Indians who were detained as hostages in the fort. Soon after this event Genl. Hand arrived without an army, in consequence of which after a few days consultation the expedition against the Indians was abandoned, and some time in Nov. they left the fort and retraced their steps to the forts on the Greenbrier river, arrived here in declarant was marched to his county Rockbridge, arrived at home about the first of Jany 1778, having served 8 months and about 20 days as a private militia man.

In the year 1779, he migrated to the frontier settlements on the Greenbrier river and in February 1780 volunteered as an Indian Spy, was stationed at Col. Andrew Donnelley's fort. Placed by Col. Donnelley under the immediate command of Lieut John McClung and during the spring, summer and fall of this year made many excursions in the adjacent countries spying, to wit, on the Greenbrier, Kanawha, Meadow, Gauley, Cole and Guyandott rivers and reporting periodically to the fort. Was near the last of Nov 1780 dismiss by Col Conally, having served as private Indian spy 9 months.

In June 1781, in the county of _____ in the State of Virginia he again volunteered as a private Indian spy, was placed under the command of Ensign George Hamilton was engaged in spying as in the preceding year, subject to the orders of Col. Donneley at whose fort they were stationed and to whom they from time to time reported was engaged in spying from June 1781 until Dec 1781 making six months additional service.

In May 1782 he again volunteered as an Indian spy in the said county of Greenbrier was again stationed at Donnelleys Fort and placed under command of Ens. James Graham, was engaged in spying and reporting to the said Fort subject to the orders of Col Donnelly until Nov. Was then dismissed having performed six months additional service as a private Indian spy.

He was born in Augusta County now Rockbridge, VA on the 15th May 1759, was living there when first called into service, from thence moved to Greenbrier Co. VA where he lived until the year 1790 when he moved to Monongalia County, VA [Harrison County, VA] where he resided until the year 1802, at which time he moved to Jackson then Mason County, VA, where he still lives.

He has no documentary evidence by which to prove his services. He was at the end of the first tour of service discharged by Capt. Hall, but not knowing if ever could be of service to him did not preserve it. At the end of each years service as an Indian spy he was mercily discharged. He knows of no man living whose testimony he can procure by which to prove his services.

He hereby relinquishes every claim what ever to a pension or annuity, except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn to and subscribed they and year aforesaid.
