Dear Rick,

I am currently reading a book by Lee R. Gandee in which many histories of Left Hand are recounted. I would be very pleased if you or anyone at your society has the time to send me any information on the founding of Left Hand and any information on how the name of it was arrived at. I am a student at Mills College and am considering writing some on the history.

Thanks in advance for any information you can provide.

Sincerely,

Martha Coates
